Air Supply

"Lost In Love"

"All Out Of Love"

"The One That I Love"

"Making Love Out Of Nothing At All"

When "Lost in Love" became the fastest selling single in the world and leaped to the top of the all the charts. Air Supply were on their way. The second single was "All Out of Love" and that went up the charts even quicker. Seven top-five singles later, Air Supply had equaled the Beatle's run of consecutive top five singles. The albums "Lost in Love", "The One That You Love", "Now & Forever" and "The Greatest Hits" sold in excess of 20 million copies. "Lost in Love" was named "song of the year" in 1980, and with the other singles sold over 10 million copies.

The trademark sound of Russell Hitchcock's soaring tenor voice and Graham Russell's simple yet majestic songs created a unique sound that would forever be known as Air Supply.

However, it was the live show that always held audiences captive around the world. In 1983 they recorded "Making Love Out of Nothing at All" by Jim Steinman which solidified the group as a permanent force in modern music. This song was released on "The Greatest Hits" album which soared past 7 million copies.
