This modern-day Rat Pack sings classics from yesterday and today's most popular artists: hear the Four Tops mixed with Michael Jackson and Sam Smith, The Temptations layered with Katy Perry and The Police, even Frankie Valli mashed with Bruno Mars – an incredible 50 songs in 90 minutes! the COMPANY MEN have enjoyed success in performing arts centers, casinos and all sorts of touring venues across North America. They have some of the widest demographic appeal of any mainstream act currently on the road.

"It's as if Sinatra, Martin and Davis are watching and guiding them to fame."
(The Examiner)

"Equal parts Jersey Boys and Blurred Lines." (The Vindicator)

"...this group's mashups, choreography and stage presence could dance them into a permanent gig on the Las Vegas strip." (Music Connection)
